OLD BUSINESS

Jim reports that we have three applicants for the scholarship at this time. Amelia Kunkel turned hers in tonight. The selection committee will be Jim Beeghly, Karo Stigler, Tim Scheer, Larry Wood and Terry Koehn. Anyone else is welcome to volunteer, just let Jim know.

Don said the Treasury is sinking a little lower. Flying has started to pick up with a few more good days to fly.

Additional RAGBRAI discussion was held. Paradise Skydivers are interested and we will have more discussions with them. Gary Lust is interested in giving flights, but he is not sure of his schedule yet. Ticket sales, pricing, Pyrotechnic Twirlers, “mechanical bucking bull waiver” and “of age drinkers” ID’s were discussed. We have interest by two and maybe three bands for music. Discussion about the stage and lights was held.

NEW BUSINESS

Private pilot Kyle Campbell is a new member this week.

We had an e-mail from a person who purchased the Cardinal the club use to have. He was checking on a lien still recorded with the FAA that Donald Krauss had on the plane. Krauss carried part of the financing at the time. We will work with him to contact Krauss and help clear this up.

Bob moved with a second by Jim that the meeting be adjourned. Motion carried. Meeting adjourned at 7:07 PM.
